

Events / Inside Barnard's Cloisters: The VR Experience

Inside Barnard's Cloisters: The VR Experience

Friday, June 13–Sunday, June 15,
2025
1–4 pm

The Met Cloisters
Gallery 2, Fuentidueña Chapel

Step back in time to the 1920s to experience artist and collector George Grey Barnard's Cloisters museum, the predecessor to The Met Cloisters. Through this VR experience, thoughtfully designed by Passé Simple, explore a reconstruction of Barnard's historic galleries, featuring works of medieval art and architecture now included in The Met Cloisters collection.

This program is part of a series of events reflecting on the centennial anniversary of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's 1925 acquisition of the George Grey Barnard collection.

See our visitor guidelines.

Image: George Grey Barnard's Cloisters, c. 1926, photographer unknown

Free with Museum admission; admission is pay what you wish for New York state residents, and free for children under 12 with an adult, and a caregiver accompanying a visitor with a disability. Note: Space is limited; first come, first served.

RESOURCES

Accessibility at The Met

Find visitor information, programs and resources, and Access stories from across The Met community.

LEARN

Learning Resources

Find classes, lessons, and learning resources for educators, kids, and families at The Met.

PROGRAMS

Workshops and Activities

Immerse yourself in art and get creative through a wide range of programs and resources for a variety of audiences.

---